

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. THE Souldiers
Pocket Bible :

Containing the most (if not all) those places contained in holy Scripture, which doe shew the qualifications of his inner man, that is a fit Souldier to fight the Lords Battels, both before he fight, in the fight, and after the fight ;

Which Scriptures are reduced to severall beads, and fitly applyed to the Souldiers severall occasions, and so may supply the want of the whole Bible, which a Souldier cannot conveniently carry about him :

And may bee also usefull for any Christian to meditate upon, now in this miserable time of Warre.

Imprimatur, Edm. Calamy.

Jos. 18. This Book of the Law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou maist observe to doe according to all that is written therein, for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and have good successe.

NOTICE.

IN calling the attention of collectors, librarians and scholars to the contents of this catalogue, it may be stated that the collection of Bibles, Psalms and Hymns therein described is believed to be the most valuable ever offered for sale in Boston, if not in the United States.

Nearly a quarter part of the entire collection consists of Bibles and Biblical Works, in various languages, versions and forms, from the ancient Hebrew Roll to the modern translation.

Among the manuscripts of interest is The Pentateuch, carefully written on thirty-six skins of parchment. Two copies of the Bible, written by the monks of the Middle Ages, elaborately illuminated with beautiful initial letters and miniatures.

To these may be added an Evangelistarium, or selections from the Gospels, for the use of the Church, written on parchment in the eighth century, seven hundred years before the invention of printing, one of the oldest books in this country.

Next in order is the Biblia Pauperum, a block book, or series of wood-cuts representing scripture subjects. The precise date is not known, but bibliographers place it between 1420 and 1460.

There is also a single leaf of the celebrated Mazarin Bible, the first book ever printed, also the New Testament printed by Fust and Schoeffer in 1462, being the first book in which the date is given, and quite a number of works within the first half century of printing.

Cromwell's Souldier's Pocket Bible, 1643, of which only one other copy is known, Eliot's Indian Bible, both first and second editions, with the rare dedications to King Charles II. Fine copy of Coverdale's Bible, 1535, the first English translation. Melancthon's own copy of the Bible, with his manuscript notes on the margins. Beautiful and unique copy of Reeves' Bible in nine volumes, with several hundred water-color illustrations by the Elder Harris of London.

Ximenes' Polyglott, 1514-17; Antwerp Polyglott, 1569-72; Walton's Polyglott, 1657; Servetus Bible, 1542, etc.

Of English versions, many editions of Wyclif, Coverdale, Tyndale, Cranmer and the Genevan, Bishop's and Douay versions, and many curious and miniature editions, including the Wicked, the Vinegar, the Breeches and the Thumb Bibles, etc., etc.

Also many rare and valuable books in other departments of literature, works from the celebrated presses of Gutenberg, Fust and Schoeffer, Caxton, Wynken de Worde, Koberger, Plantin, Pynson, Baskerville, Stephen Daye, the first American printer, and Benjamin Franklin, also privately printed books from the Strawberry Hill, Lee Priory, Great Totham and Auchinleck Presses, and the Roxburghe and other clubs.

Halliwell's magnificent edition of Shakespeare in sixteen folio volumes; complete set of Percy Society Publications, beautifully bound; nearly all the publications of Dibdin; India paper copies of the Riverside editions of Bacon's, Burton's and Montaigne's Works; British Poets and Essayists; Sunnyside edition of Irving's Works, 26 vols.; Caxton's Chronicle, 1520, and Higden's Polychronicon, 1582; Cooper's Chronicle, 1560; Harding's Chronicle, 1543, and a fine copy of the Nuremburg Chronicle, 1493; Brandt's Ship of Fooles, 1570; Vision of Piers Plowman, 1561; Walton and Cotton's Angler, Pickering, 1836.

Also many rare works of Americana, including publications of the early New England Divines, the Mathers, John and Seaborn Cotton, Thomas Shepherd, Michael Wigglesworth, Samuel Willard, James Fitch and John Fisk; Bay Psalm Book and reprints; Massachusetts Psalter, 1709; Indian Primer, 1747; Hale's Witchcraft, 1702; Scot's Discovery of Witchcraft, 1665; New England's First Fruits, 1643; Bishope's New England Judged, 1661; Josse-lyn's New England Rarities, 1672, etc., etc.

Together with a small collection of WASHINGTON'S PORTRAITS.

OF THE BIBLE.

- 10.00 103 Bible. Manuscript Bible. Twelfth Century. Biblia Sacra Latina. This Manuscript of the Latin Vulgate is well written in a small gothic character, on 482 leaves of fine vellum, arranged in two columns. The initials are all illuminated in red and blue, and several containing small miniatures. Some of the initials in this volume are very finely executed; at the end of the initial to the Book of Genesis, representing the work of creation in seven compartments, is a drawing of the Crucifixion. The mother of Jesus is standing on one side of the cross and St. John on the other. At the end of the MSS. the interpretations of proper names used in Scripture are arranged in five columns, on thirty leaves. 11 inches by 7 1-2. Small folio, calf. (Covers broken.) Sæc, 1150

From the Library of the Duke of Sussex. See Bibliotheca Sussexiana, Vol. I. p. lxxi.

- 100.— 104 Bible. Manuscript Bible. Thirteenth Century. Biblia Sacra Latina. Manuscript written in small gothic characters in double columns on 622 leaves of fine thin vellum. Some of the principal capitals are illuminated, others are merely written in red and blue, and flourished. At the end are the interpretations of proper names, on 57 leaves. Thick 8° calf. (One cover loose.) Sæc. XIII.

From the Library of the Duke of Sussex. See Bibliotheca Sussexiana, Vol. I. p. lxxii.

- 190.— 105 Bible. Manuscript on Vellum. Eighth Century. New Testament. (Gospels.) Latin. An Evangelistarium, or copy of the church lessons from the Gospels for the whole year. Manuscript on Vellum, double columns, 119 leaves. 4° full morocco, gilt. Sæc. VIII.

Lettered on back "Evangelia Quatuor. MS. Sæculi VIII."

The following note is by Mr. Livermore:—"Bought for me by Henry Stevens, at the sale of the Library of Rev. Dr. Hawtrey, Provost of Eton, being No. 111 on the catalogue, and particularly described by the former owner. This is probably the oldest manuscript in America, the fragment of a Greek Bible in the College at Cambridge has hitherto been regarded the oldest. This is believed to be of greater antiquity."

- 106 Biblia Pauperum or Block Book. This copy only contains 11 of the 40 original blocks of the first edition described by Berjeau. It has been badly injured by water, and some of the leaves are imperfect. 4° boards. (1420-60)

"Commonly called a block book, being the first essay towards the art of printing, by letters and figures, cut out in blocks of wood, before the invention of moveable types, consisting of 40 rude designs of the principal historical subjects in the Bible, interspersed with sentences above, below and in the middle, or in the scrolls, according to the ancient manner of describing figures speaking.

Of all xylographic works, that is, such as are printed from wooden plates, the Biblia Pauperum is the most celebrated, and unquestionably a very rare and ancient book. The few copies of it which are extant are for the most part imperfect, or in a very bad condition, which ought not to excite surprise, when it is considered that this work, being a kind of catechism of the Bible, was executed for the use of young persons and of the common people (whence its name, the Bible of the Poor), who were thus enabled to acquire, at a low price, a knowledge of some of the events recorded in the Scriptures. This will account for the destruction of almost every copy by repeated use." Bohn's Catalogue, 1841, p. 17. See also full description and fac-simile plates in "Berjeau's Biblia Pauperum, London, 1859."

- 107 Biblia Pauperum. Opera di Giouāniandrea Vavassore ditto Vadaguino: Stampata nouamēte nella inclita citta di Vinegia. Only 27 leaves. 12° full brown morocco, by Hayday. (A few corners neatly mended.) Venice, (1513-20)

"After the invention of printing with moveable types, the Biblia Pauperum was reproduced, but printed on both sides of the paper. The Italian Biblia Pauperum, with subjects differently arranged, and 118 woodcuts, of which some are taken from Albert Durer's "Small Passion." This Bible printed at Venice, was the work of Giov. Andrea Vavassore detto Vadaguino.—Berjeau's Biblia Pauperum.

With the Arms of Cardinal Ximenes on the titles of the Old Testament printed in red, on the title of the New Testament in black. 5 vols. folio, stamped pigskin, with clasps.
Industria Amaldi Gulielmi de Grocario artis impressoriæ Magistri, Compluti, 1514-17
This set of 5 vols., which includes the Old and New Testament complete, has nearly 100 pages after the colophon and Greek and Latin verses described by Pettigrew as the last leaf of the fifth volume, viz: I, Interpretationes Hebraicum. II. Introductio quâ brevissima ad grecas litteras. III. Index of Greek and Latin words. All these are generally included in a sixth volume.
"This Polyglott is very generally known under the name of the Ximenes Polyglott, from its having been projected and carried into effect by the munificence and exertions of the celebrated Cardinal Ximenes. Only 600 copies printed; a number insufficient to supply the public libraries. This will account for the rarity of the work, even as early as the latter part of the 16th century, as noticed by Arias Montanus in the preface to the Antwerp Polyglott."

- 129 Bible. Coverdale's Bible. The Bible, that is, the holy Scripture of the Olde and New Testament, faithfully and truly translated out of Douche and Latyn into Englishe (by Miles Coverdale). Woodcuts by H. S. Beham. Black Letter. Folio, brown morocco super extra, tooled sides, gauffered edges, bound by Bedford in his best manner, with morocco case with lock. (Binding and margins of some leaves water stained.) N. p. 1535

"The first English Bible printed, the first Protestant translation of the whole Bible into English, and one of the rarest books in the language. The possession of a fragment only has always justly been esteemed a treasure by our Biblical Collectors, no perfect copy being as yet to be found in any Library, public or private. Mr. J. Dunn Gardner's copy, notwithstanding it was perfected by means of facsimile leaves, sold in 1854 for £365; and a copy, on the whole less desirable than that now offered for sale, though with fewer facsimile leaves, sold in 1857 for £190. Fragments only have produced from £50 to £150. The facsimile leaves in the present copy are as follows: Title, ii and iiiii to viii of the preliminary leaves, folios i to iv, and vii, viii, ix, xi and xii in the first part of the Bible; the map; and folios xci to xcvi, ciii, and cviii to cxiii in the New Testament. A few of the head-lines and marginal notes have been touched by a former binder, the only leaves, however which have suffered to any extent are folios xl, lxiii, ~~lxxiii~~ of the Apocrypha.

The majority of the facsimile leaves are by the elder Harris, and made with his accustomed skill; so much so as in more than one instance to render it difficult to decide whether they are originals or copies.

The translation is generally considered as the joint production of Tyndale and Coverdale, and is usually called "Coverdale's Bible." The printing is commonly attributed to Froschover of Zurich, the type being the angular Swiss or German. Mr. Anderson, in his Annals of the English Bible, asserts that he has ascertained that Froschover was not the printer, but does not give the grounds for this opinion. The type and woodcuts much resemble those used by Egenolf of Frankfort, as seen in books printed by him between 1534 and 1539, but the most exact inquirers have as yet failed to discover with certainty to whom the printing of this Bible should be attributed."

(On the margin of catalogue clipping is the following note by Mr. Livermore, "Bought for me March, 1862, by Henry Stevens, London, for £140.")

Mr. Henry Stevens in his "Bibles in the Caxton Exhibition, 1877," says:—"As to Coverdale and our first Complete English Bible, finished the 4th of Oct., 1535, THE MOST PRECIOUS VOLUME IN OUR LANGUAGE, what do we know? Absolutely next to nothing. The volume itself tells us the day it was finished, but where it was printed, or by whom, or for whom, or under what circumstances, no historian or bibliographer has as yet given us any trustworthy information. No literary mystery for the past three centuries has elicited so much inquiry, or so many investigators, especially of late and latest years; yet up to the opening day of this Caxton Celebration, the 30th of June, 1877, all is but mere conjecture."

Mr. Stevens proceeds at length to prove that the Coverdale Bible was printed at Antwerp by Jacob van Meteren.

 "This edition of Pagninus's Latin version of the Bible was carefully revised by Michael Servetus. To this has been added the Scholia, which favour the doctrines of Socinus, and the publications of these caused him to be denounced as an impious man, persecuted, tried and condemned and burned alive as a heretic, Oct. 1553. The fire by which he was burnt was kindled with copies of the Bible containing his notes. All his works that could be obtained were thrown into the flames." N. Bryling: Basilæ, 1557

"This is a most interesting volume, as it bears internal evidence of having been much studied by the illustrious Reformer, Philip Melancthon, very many of the margins being literally filled with annotations in his autograph. Many of these annotations are written in his well-known thick epistolary hand, while others are executed in so minute a hand (though still preserving the same character) as at first sight, might induce the casual observer to doubt the possibility of their having been the penmanship of one and the same person. Upon this point, however, a careful examination leaves not the smallest doubt. The volume was discovered in the library of the late Alexander Chalmers, Esq., and was inserted (with fac-similes) in the catalogue (page 58), of the library of Dr. Kloss, of Frankfort; sold in 1835." Christoph. Plantinus excud.: Antverpiæ, 1569-72

"The first five volumes contain the whole of the sacred Scriptures, arranged in the usual manner, the three remaining volumes containing supplementary matter are lacking. The Antwerp Polyglott is, and must continue to be, of great rarity; 500 copies only having been printed, and the greater part of these lost at sea, the vessel containing them being wrecked in a tempestuous voyage to Spain. A copy of the first five volumes, printed on vellum, is in the Royal Library at Paris." See Pettigrew's Bibliotheca Sussexiana, Vol. I, part 2, pages 28-38.

"This is one of the most remarkable editions of the celebrated version made by the English exiles, whilst residing in Geneva. This was for a long time the favorite version with the Puritans both in the Old and in the New World. Our Pilgrim ancestors prized it highly, and used this version almost altogether during the early days of the colonies. The marginal notes were greatly esteemed by them; and when our present authorized version took the place of this, they complained that "they found it difficult to read the word of God understandingly without the Genevan spectacles."—Note by Mr. Livermore.

ing the Old Testament and the New. Black Letter. Thick folio, calf, blind tooled, gilt edges.
Robert Barker: London, 1611
Title page neatly mended, otherwise a fine copy.
“This first edition being a most interesting and desirable volume, imperfect copies are continually made up with the prolegomena of later editions. The dedication and preface of this volume so closely resemble those of the edition of 1613, and the other preliminary leaves as well as the text, are at first sight so similar to the editions of 1617, 1634 and 1640, that attention to the minutiae here given is necessary for their identification.” — See Lea Wilson's Catalogue of English Bibles, pp. 97-100.
With Mr. James Lenox's “Early Editions of King James' Bible in folio” laid in.
- 10.— 168 Bible. The Same. Edition of 1613. Black Letter. Thick

- 1000.- 187 BIBLE. THE SOULDIER'S POCKET BIBLE: containing the most (if not all) those places contained in Holy Scripture, which doe shew the qualifications of his inner man, that is a fit Souldier to fight the Lord's Battle, both before he fight, in the fight, and after the fight. Which Scriptures are reduced to severall heads, and fitly applyed to the Souldiers severall occasions, and so may supply the want of the whole Bible, which a Souldier cannot conveniently carry about him. And may bee also usefull for any Christian to meditate upon, now in this miserable time of warre. 16° antique calf, pp. 16. Imprimatur, Edm. Calamy.

Printed at London, by G. B. and R. W. for G. C., 1643

"This celebrated Bible, commonly known as 'Cromwell's Souldier's Pocket Bible,' was issued for the use of the army soon after the commencement of the Civil War in England. Only two copies are known to be extant. The one in the library of Mr. Livermore was regarded as unique until, at the suggestion of Henry Stevens, Esq., the collection of old Civil War Pamphlets, some thirty or fifty thousand of them in the British Museum, were searched, and a duplicate was discovered there."

Extract from a letter to Mr. Francis Fry, quoted in the Preface of the reprint made by him from the British Museum Copy. — Almost at the same time that Mr. Fry published his reprint Mr. Livermore published (1862) a reprint from his own copy — a curious coincidence, as neither knew of the other's intention. Of Mr. Livermore's reprint, not less than five editions were issued during the American Civil War, the first being 20,000, and all aggregating 50,000 or more. The letter already quoted, mentioning these facts, says: "It is a curious fact that after two centuries of oblivion 'The Souldier's Pocket Bible' should be reproduced in various forms and on both sides of the Atlantic. . . . There is hardly anything more wonderful in the history of the curiosities of literature."

Fine clean and perfect copy. The only other known copy is in the British Museum. It does not appear to have been known to Watt, Lowndes, or Dibdin; nor is it described or mentioned by any bibliographer. It is singular that 32 years have passed since the facsimile reprints were published, and that no other copies of this biblical rarity have been found.

- 19.- 188 BIBLE. The Souldier's Pocket Bible. An exact reprint of the original edition of 1643, with a preparatory note by George Livermore. 12° boards, uncut.

Printed for Private Distribution: Cambridge, 1861

VELLUM COPY, only 10 copies so printed.

- 1.61 188* BIBLE. Soldier's Pocket Bible, first printed in 1643. 18° cloth. (23 copies.) Am. Tract Society: Boston.

- 32.- 189 BIBLE. Souldiers Pocket Bible, 1643. Reproduced in facsimile with an introduction by Francis Fry. Bound in 12° full green morocco, gilt edges. London, 1862

VELLUM COPY: presentation copy from the author.

- 1.25 190 BIBLE. Holy Bible. 18° morocco. (Broken and water stained.) John Field: London, 1653
Counterfeit edition of Field's celebrated edition of the pocket Bible.
- 45.- 191 BIBLE. Biblia Sacra Polyglotta, complectentia. Edidit Brianus Waltonus. Portrait of the editor by Lombart and engraved frontispiece by Hollar. 6 vols. large folio, old calf. Thomas Roycroft: London, 1657
A LOYAL Copy. "With the 4th and 5th directions on page 48 preliminary matter, UNCANCELLED. Mr. Charles Butler, in his Horæ Biblicæ, p. 100, has also made some observations on this circumstance, and says, that every copy of the Polyglott examined by himself or his friends, has a pasted text. He has heard that twelve copies, and twelve copies only, are without it. I have examined many copies, and find them all to have the pasted text."
By permission of Oliver Cromwell, the paper for the work was allowed to be imported free of duty, and for this favour Dr. Walton, it is supposed, was bound by gratitude to dedicate it to the Protector. Upon the restoration of Charles II, which took place before the Polyglott was completed, Dr. Walton cancelled some leaves and made great alterations. To Dr. Adam Clarke we are indebted for a very accurate collation of the two editions, which, from the circumstance just mentioned, are usually denominated either Republican or Loyal copies." See Bibliotheca Sussexiana, Vol. I, part 2, pages 50-68.
- .75 192 BIBLE. King James. Interleaved. Bound in 2 vols. 12° calf. (Worn.) London, 1655
- 3.- 193 BIBLE. King James. Holy Bible, containing the Bookes of the Old and New Testament. Engraved title. 2 vols. folio, calf, gilt. John Field: Cambridge, 1660

BIBLES — Continued.

- 117.- 266 BIBLE. Holy Bible, containing the Old Testament and the New. 9 vols 4° full blue morocco extra, inside borders satin fly-leaves. John Reeves: London, 1802-3 LARGE PAPER.
- "The notes in Reeves's Bible are selected with much judgment from the writings of Patrick, Lowth, Whitby, and other esteemed critics. The historical parts are in prose, and printed in continuous paragraphs, and the poetical are divided into verses."
- This copy is most beautifully illustrated by over 700 original WATER COLOR drawings, with borders to each title page and the different books of the Bible, each one in a different style; the original vignettes at the beginning and ending of each chapter are very finely executed in water-colors.
- The following description of this copy is taken from a memoir of the artist, Mr. John Harris, by his son:
- "There are also two copies of the Bible (the Old and the New Testaments, with the Apocrypha, known as Reeves' Bible), which were illustrated by original designs to each Book and chapter, one of the copies done in India Ink and the other in Water-Colors. They were executed for Mr. White, who, I believe, sold the one done in India Ink to her late Majesty Queen Charlotte, and the satisfaction given by this first copy caused him to receive a commission for the other (this) copy, to be done in colors. I am not aware what became of this copy, but presume it is the one now in possession of Mr. George Livermore. Queen Charlotte's Library was dispersed, but I do not know what became of that Bible. The original designs for these numerous illustrations are now in the possession of the writer. This memoir is by his son, John Harris, an artist following a variety of branches connected with the fine Arts, but priding himself more particularly upon executing fac-simile leaves for perfecting rare old books. London, July 13, 1854."

LARGE PAPER COPY, only 25 copies printed.
Rev. Christopher Anderson's copy, author of "Annals of the English Bible," with autograph and following notes on the fly-leaf:
"This is, as yet, to be regarded as the MOST PERFECT impresson of the English Bible in EXISTENCE."
"I may here remark that the Edinburgh edition of the English Bible of 1811 is, when found upon LARGE PAPER, a much more beautiful book than the vaunted diamond edition of 1656. But those will be more fortunate who get this Edinburgh Edition, upon LARGE PAPER, as only 25 copies were printed."—Dibdin's Library Companion.

BIBLES, CONTINUED, NEW TESTAMENTS.

52. — 388 NEW TESTAMENT. Biblia Sacra Latina, Novum Testamentum. Colophon: Pñs hoc opusculū artificiosa adinventione imprimendi seu caracterizandi absque calami exaracione in civitate Maguntina sic effigiatū et ad ensebia dei industrie per Johez Fust eine et Petru Schoiffher de gernsheym consummatu Anno Dni MCCCCLXII. Folio, stamped antique pigskin, blind-tooled.

"This Bible, the FIRST extant with the date and with the name of a printer, has always been regarded as an object of rarity, curiosity, and interest. According to Fabricius, Fust and Schœffer printed this work at Mentz, and sold the copies at Paris as MSS for 60 crowns; and from the number disposed of they were supposed to have been executed by magic, as the discovery of printing at that time was a secret." — Pettigrew's Bibliotheca Sussexiana, Vol. I. Part II, pp. 294-299. See also Bibliotheca Spenceriana, Vol. I, pp. 11-18.

COLLATION. This copy contains only 97 leaves (it should have 239). The last leaf is supplied in exact fac-simile, and has suffered from water-stains, some margins are stained, and a few of the painted initials have offset on the opposite pages. The following memorandum, written by Mr. Livermore, appears on a fly-leaf: "This copy has been cleaned, the initial letters re-painted, and the volume rebound under the direction of Messrs. Clarke & Bedford, London."

BIBLES — Continued. New Testaments.

4. — 389 New Testament. German. [Hillige Evangelien un Epistolen dudesch, 1480.] Black Letter. Wood-cuts. Small folio, stamped calf. (Title and leaves at back and front missing.)

- 7.50 390 New Testament. Latin. Novum Testamentum cum Glossa Nic. de Lyra. Black Letter, printed double columns, with a few initial letters. Folio, boards.

Anthony Koburger: Nuremburg, 1485

See Bibliotheca Sussexiana, Vol. 2, p. 501.

26. — 391 NEW TESTAMENT. Greek and Latin. Novum Instrumentum omne, diligenter ab Erasmo Roterodamo recognitum et emendatum. Imperial 8° full morocco, gilt edges.

Joannis Frobenii: Basileæ, 1516

EDITIO PRINCEPS of Erasmus, and the first published Greek and Latin Testament. It is a book of considerable rarity, but having been executed in great haste — for it is reported to have been accomplished in five months — it abounds with errors, which have been corrected in subsequent editions. The first edition, dated in 1514, was not finished until 1522." — Bibliotheca Sussexiana, Vol. II, p. 450.

20. — 392 NEW TESTAMENT. Tyndale's. First New Testament printed in the English Language, 1525 or 1526. Translated from the Greek by William Tyndale. Reproduced in fac-simile by Francis Fry. Black Letter reprint, printed on hand-made paper, with initial letters illuminated by hand and heightened with gold. Royal 8° full brown morocco extra, beautifully tooled with Grolier pattern on back and sides, inside borders, gilt edges.

Printed for the Editor: Bristol, 1862

LARGE PAPER copy, only 26 copies printed, only 177 copies in all.

"Faithful representation of the original. It has been made by tracing on transfer paper, placing this on lithographic stones, and then printing in the usual way. To prove the correctness of the work, I have compared a proof of every page, folding it so as to place each line parallel with the original." — Introduction.

10. — 393 NEW TESTAMENT. Coverdale's New Testament, 1538. First edition. A fragment only, consisting of 16 leaves. Small 4° parchment. Southwark, 1538

9. — 394 NEW TESTAMENT. Novum Testamentum, Evangelium, etc. 2 vols. 12° calf. (Covers broken.)

Ro. Stephani: Paris, 1541

This is the edition for which the publisher, Robert Stephens, was persecuted with so much acrimony by the Catholic clergy of France.

- 3.50 395 NEW TESTAMENT. Novum Testamentum, per D. Erasmina Roterodamum, etc. 111 curious wood-cuts. 24° calf. (Cover broken and water-stained.)

Petrus Regnault: Parisiis, 1542

BIBLES — Continued. New Testaments,

- 12.— 396 NEW TESTAMENT. The New Testament in Englishe after the Greeke Translation, annexed with the translation of Erasmus in Latin. 8° calf. (Binding broken and water-stained.) Thomas Gaultier : Londoni, 1550
 "Received from Henry Stevens, Esq., London, who informs me that probably the only other copy of this rare Testament in this country is the one in the library of James Lenox, and which cost 15 Guineas." — Note by Mr. Livermore.
- 7.25 397 NEW TESTAMENT. Black Letter. Curious wood-cuts. (Title and leaves missing at front and back. Small 4° half calf. Richard Jugge : London, 1552
- 1.25 398 NEW TESTAMENT. Italian and Latin. Thick 18° vellum. Lyone, 1558
- 2.25 399 NEW TESTAMENT. Das Neue Testament D. Martin Luther. Wood-cuts. Thick 12° stamped pigskin, with clasps. Valentin Newber : Nurnberg, 1567

- 12.— 402 NEW TESTAMENT. First edition of Rhemish Version. New Testament of Jesus Christ, translated faithfully into English. Small 4° calf. (Rebacked.) Printed at Rhemes, by John Fogny, 1582
 "First edition of the Roman Catholic English version of the New Testament. It was suppressed on account of the extreme violence of notes, many of which were omitted in all subsequent editions."
- 2.— 403 NEW TESTAMENT. Beza's version, translated by L. Tomson. Black Letter. 4° boards. A few leaves of the index missing at the end.) Christopher Barker : (London) 1583
- 1.50 404 NEW TESTAMENT. Novum Testamentum Græcum. 24° calf. (Binding broken and stained.) Londoni, 1592
 "It is probable that this may be the earliest edition published in England." — Dibdin's Spenceriana, Vol. 5, p. 198.
- 3.50 405 NEW TESTAMENT. Small 4° half russia. Christopher Barker : London, 1495
 This date is evidently an error, as the first English translation was not printed until 1523. There was a quarto edition of the Bible printed by the Deputies of Christopher Barker in 1595.
- 1.75 406 NEW TESTAMENT. New Testament of Jesus Christ faithfully translated into English. By the English College then resident in Rhemes. Set forth the second time by the same College, now returned to Doway. Small 4° calf. Printed at Antwerp, by Daniel Veroliet, 1600

- "This Psalter, which is sometimes denominated the Genoan Polyglott, is of exceeding interest, not merely on account of its rarity, but as being the first Polyglott ever published, and containing the first Arabic ever printed. It is particularly remarkable on account of a note appended to Psalm XIX, 4. In this note Justinian gives a very curious sketch of the life of Christopher Columbus, an account of the discovery of America, and a description of its inhabitants. Columbus is made to boast himself to be the person appointed by God to fulfil the prophetic exclamation of David. The account given by Justinian respecting Columbus is, however, very positively contradicted in several particulars, by the son of Columbus, in the Life of his Father, printed in Churchill's Collection of Voyages, etc. It is stated that, considering the many mistakes and falsehoods found in his History and Psalter, the Senate of Genoa has laid a penalty upon any person that shall read or keep it; and caused it to be carefully sought out in all places it has been sent to, that it may by public decree be destroyed and utterly extinguished." — For a further account of this work see Bibliotheca Sussexiana, Vol. I, part II, pp. 107-12.

Intended for a continuation or supplement to the Spenceriana.
- 87.— 789 DIBDIN. The Bibliographical Decameron; or Ten Days' Pleasant Discourse upon Illuminated Manuscripts and Subjects connected with Early Engraving, Typography, and Bibliography. Numerous portraits and illustrated plates, many of them upon India paper. 3 vols. royal 8° full crimson morocco, gilt edges over marble. London, 1817 SPLENDID COPY.
"This work may be considered as a continuation of the 'Bibliomania,' the same characters being introduced in the dialogues. From the information which it contains, and the splendor of the decorations and printing, it will ever be considered as a model of excellence and good taste in typography and the arts. Both the copper plates and the wood-cuts which embellished the work have been destroyed."
— Lowndes.
- 78.— 790 DIBDIN. Bibliographical, Antiquarian, and Picturesque Tour in France and Germany. Numerous illustrations, the steel plates in the text being proofs on India paper. 3 vols. thick royal 8° boards, uncut. London, 1821

- 19.25 795 DIBDIN. Bibliomania, or Book Madness, a Bibliographical Romance. Illustrated with Engravings. New edition, with Preliminary Observations and a Key to the assumed Characters in the Drama. Royal 8° boards, uncut. (Broken.) BEST EDITION. London, 1842
- "The 'Bibliomania' is written in dialogues or conversations. The characters introduced are well-known book-collectors of the author's acquaintance. The great value of the work is in the notes, which abound with anecdotes of books and book-collectors, and an account of the rarer articles in their collections, and the prices at which they were sold, extracted from the sale catalogues. It will always be consulted as an authority." — Lowndes.
- 3.50 796 DUYCKINCK, E. A. and G. L. Cyclopædia of American Literature. Portraits. 2 vols. imperial 8° cloth. New York, 1856

"EDITIO PRINCEPS. This volume must ever continue to be considered as a splendid monument of the ingenuity and perseverance of the inventor of the art of printing with metal types, the rarity, beauty and intrinsic curiosity of which is sufficient to make it always a desirable acquisition to the cabinets of the curious. We are astonished, on examining such a mass of close printing, executed upon paper of almost matchless manufacture, at the perseverance and skill of the inventors of the typographic art." — Bibliotheca Spenceriana, Vol.

- 30.— 1212 DURER, Albert. Passio Christi ab Alberto Durer, Nurenburgensi Effigiata. Small 4° calf. Broer Jans Z. excu. (1610-15)
"Albert Durer's Passion, a series of 37 plates, known under the name of 'The Small Passion.' This book contains 'Durer's Small Passion' in copies on copper, made by a Dutch engraver, whose name has not been ascertained. Jan Broer was a publisher who lived at the Hague at the beginning of the 17th century. The letters of the French verses (in MSS.) correspond with the inscriptions of the plates of Count Goudt, which was done in Holland in 1610-15. Durer's engravings of the Passion were often illuminated in prayer-books, and were highly prized. The illuminations (in this copy) are finely done in the style of the old miniature painting, the heightening with gold showing a type older than the discovery of printing, which brought that art by degrees into disuse."—From an autograph letter from Mr. Louis Thies, with a list containing title of each plate.

William Pickering: London, 1836
This is, without doubt, the most beautifully illustrated edition of "Honest Isaak's" charming pastoral ever published. To the late tasteful publisher, Mr. Pickering, its production was literally a labor of love. Neither the time nor expense were spared to render it worthy of the arts and the importance of the subject, and the result was a union of literary and artistic talent which has rarely been equalled and never surpassed.
